Dear Chairman Wheeler:

I attended "Bay Area Speaks: A People's Hearing on the Future of the Internet" on Nov. 20, 2014. I would like to share my comments with you in writing:

I am a student in high school. I use the Internet every day. I need and I use the Internet daily. I need an open Internet to get work done. As an aspiring engineer, I need an open Internet to get work done.

This proposed merger is a horrible idea. I don't see the value in monopolies and trusts that we tried to get rid of in the early 20th century.
